A chart for recording a cat's body temperature over 31 days. It features 31 white cat head icons arranged in three rows. The first row contains icons 1 through 8, the second row 9 through 16, and the third row 17 through 24. Below the third row, there is a row of icons 25 through 31, with a larger illustration of a sleeping white cat on the left. Each icon has the number above it and the text '体温' (body temperature) and '℃' below it. The background is a blue sky with white clouds and a green grassy field with small white flowers.
